

Nomura to Acquire Instinet from Silver Lake Partners

NEW YORK and TOKYO, November 2, 2006 – Instinet, Inc., a global agency broker, today announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to be acquired in an all cash transaction by Nomura Holdings, Inc, a leading Japan-based, global financial services firm. Instinet is majority owned by Silver Lake Partners, the leading private equity firm focused on large-scale investments in technology and related industries. The purchase price was not disclosed.

Upon completion of the transaction, which is subject to regulatory approvals and is expected in the first quarter of 2007, Instinet will be operated as a wholly-owned subsidiary and brand of Nomura offering agency execution services to institutional clients around the world. Senior management, including CEO Edward J. Nicoll, will continue to run the firm.

“Nomura is one of the world’s premier financial services firms, and we are excited to join its family,” said Nicoll. “This deal will allow us to continue offering our institutional clients around the world the high-quality execution services that they have come to expect from Instinet, while adding access to Nomura’s various investment product offerings and global liquidity pool.”

“Instinet has become one of the world’s largest agency brokers through the superiority of its people, technology and business model, and it has been a privilege to work alongside the firm,” said Mike Bingle, Managing Director at Silver Lake Partners. “Nomura is a perfect fit for Instinet going forward, and we have every confidence that the business will continue to thrive.”

“Instinet is a true pioneer in field of electronic trading, offering world-class front-end trading products, crossing platforms and algorithms,” said Mr. Hiromasa Yamazaki, Senior Managing Director of Nomura Securities. “The firms complement each other remarkably well, and we fully expect both of our client bases to benefit greatly. All of Nomura’s business divisions warmly welcome Instinet to our group.”
